Port of Baltimore I-95 Road Construction

REMINDER: SPLIT TRAFFIC PATTERNS ON I-95 IN BALTIMORE CITY START THIS WEEKEND

Part of Major Roadwork South of the Fort McHenry Tunnel

WHAT: Weather permitting, southbound I-95 traffic lanes will split after the Fort McHenry Tunnel with two lanes to the left and two lanes to the right. Prior to entering the Fort McHenry Tunnel, motorists MUST stay right to access Exit 55 (Key Highway), Exit 53 (I-395) and Exit 52 (MD 295). Thru traffic stay to the left. E-ZPass is accepted in all toll lanes.

Weather permitting, northbound I-95 traffic lanes will split with three lanes to the left and one lane to the right from Exit 54 (Hanover Street) to Exit 55 (Key Highway). To use Exit 54 or Exit 55, traffic MUST be in the right lane prior to the split. Traffic entering northbound I-95 from I-395 will use Fort McHenry Tunnel Bore 4 (right tube). E-ZPass is accepted in all toll lanes. Delays anticipated on southbound I-395 leaving Baltimore City – use Key Highway to access northbound I-95 instead.

To accomplish the southbound I-95 split, the ramp from Hanover Street to southbound I-95 will be temporarily closed overnight. The detour route will direct motorists to eastbound McComas Street, to a u-turn onto westbound McComas Street, to southbound I-95.

To accomplish the northbound I-95 split, the ramp from southbound I-395 to northbound I-95 will be temporarily closed overnight. The detour route will direct motorists to southbound I-95, to Caton Avenue (Exit 50), to northbound I-95.

WHEN: The southbound I-95 shift will be in effect by Saturday, March 28, for approximately eight weeks.

The northbound I-95 shift will be in effect by Monday, March 30, for approximately eight weeks.
